

We can ask questions and talk about what we have learnt.

We can make connections to learning across the curriculum.

It links to real-life and the world around us.

Some learning takes place outdoors.

We share a love of learning.

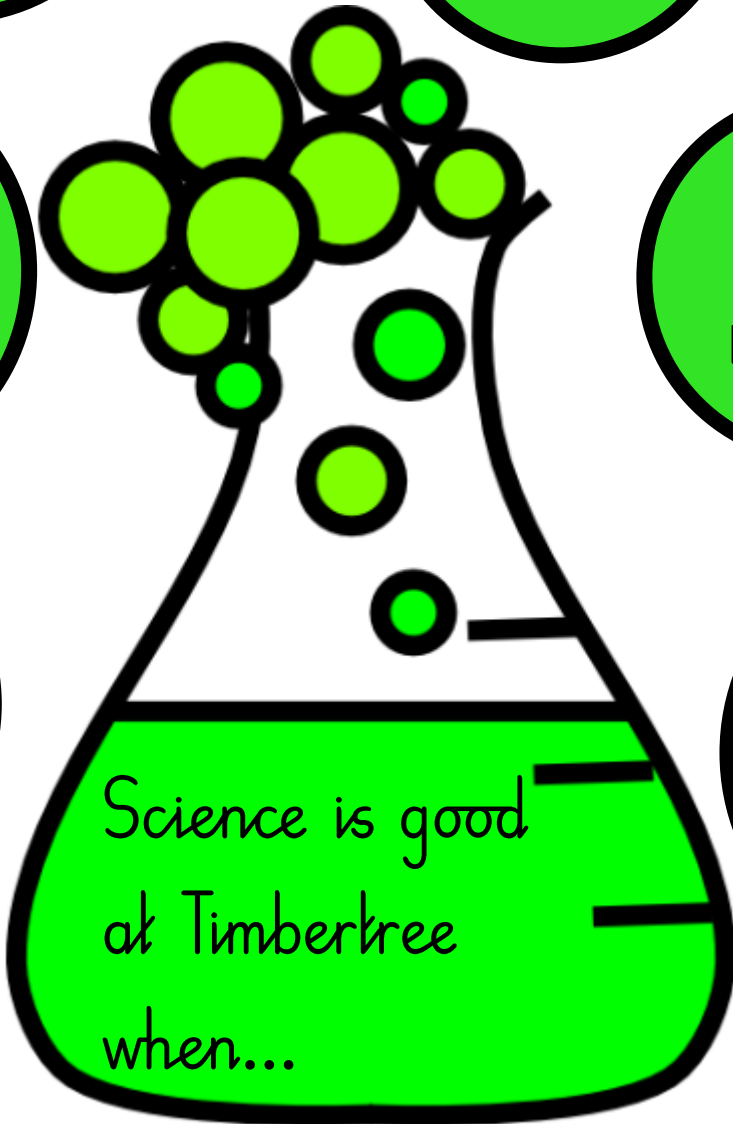

We take risks.

We build on our existing knowledge.

It's accessible to everyone.

We have hands on experiences.

We work in collaboration with each other.

Science is good at Timbertree when...